CONTENTS

No. 1 JULY, 1943

MAURICE E. SHILS AND E. V. MCCOLLUM. Further studies on the symptoms of manganese deficiency in the rat and mouse. Five figures 1

ALINE UNDERHILL ORTEN AND JAMES M. ORTEN. The role of dietary protein in hemoglobin formation 21

A. GEORGE REIFMAN, LOIS T. HALLMAN AND HARRY J. DEUEL, JR. The effect of concentration on the absorption of vitamin A..... 33

H. G. MILLER. Nutritive differences in rations containing unhydrogenated or hydrogenated fats as shown by rearing successive generations of rats.... 43

CLIFFORD D. BAUER AND CLARENCE P. BERG. The amino acids required for growth in mice and the availability of their optical isomers. Three figures 51

B. S. SCHWEIGERT, E. NIELSEN, J. M. MCINTIRE AND C. A. ELVEHJEM. Biotin content of meat and meat products 65

B. S. SCHWEIGERT, J. M. MCINTIRE AND C. A. ELVEHJEM. The retention of vitamins in meats during storage, curing and cooking 73

EVAN W. MCCHESNEY. Studies of calcium and phosphorus metabolism in the chick. I. The comparative effect of vitamins D_2 and D_3 and dihydrotachysterol given orally and intramuscularly 81

F. W. STAMLER, R. T. TIDRICK AND E. D. WARNER. Vitamin K and prothrombin levels with special reference to the influence of age. Two figures.... 95

No. 2 AUGUST, 1943

MURIEL D. D. BOELTER AND DAVID M. GREENBERG. Effect of severe calcium deficiency on pregnancy and lactation in the rat 105

H. H. ROSTORFER, C. D. KOCHAKIAN, AND J. R. MURLIN. Digestion of whole wheat and white breads in the human stomach 123

George Sayers, Marion Sayers and James M. Orten. The effect of sodium chloride upon the disposition of injected glucose in a strain of rats. One figure 139

Hughina McKay, Mary B. Patton, Martha S. Pittman, Genevieve Stearns and N. Edelblute. The effect of vitamin D on calcium retentions 153

C. G. Bly, F. W. Heggeness and E. S. Nasset. The effects of pantothenic acid and inositol added to whole wheat bread on evacuation time, digestion and absorption in the upper gastrointestinal tract of dogs. Two figures 161

Robert C. Lewis, Alberta Iliff and Anna Marie Duval. Further consideration of the effect of altitude on basal metabolism. A study on young women residents of Denver. One figure 175

Harold R. Street. A study of the availability of the iron in enriched bread. Two figures 187

H. Patrick, R. V. Boucher, R. Adams Dutcher and H. C. Knandel. Prevention of perosis and dermatitis in turkey poults 197

Harry A. Waisman, A. F. Rasmussen, Jr., C. A. Elvehjem and Paul F. Clark. Studies on the nutritional requirements of the Rhesus monkey. Two figures 205

No. 3 SEPTEMBER, 1943

Ralph Hoagland and George G. Snider. Digestibility of certain higher saturated fatty acids and triglycerides 219

Cornelia H. Johnston, Louise Schauer, Sam Rapaport and Harry J. Deuel Jr. The effect of cooking with and without sodium bicarbonate on the thiamine, riboflavin, and ascorbic acid content of peas 227

George Kitzes, H. A. Schuette, and C. A. Elvehjem. The B vitamins in honey 241

F. J. McClure. The destructive action, in vivo, of dilute acids and acid drinks and beverages on the rats' molar teeth. One plate (eight figures) 251

R. C. Miller, J. W. Pence, R. A. Dutcher, P. T. Ziegler and M. A. McCarty. The influence of the thiamine intake of the pig on the thiamine content of pork with observations on the riboflavin content of pork 261

BARNETT SURE. Dietary requirements for fertility and lactation. XXXI. Further studies on the role of P-aminobenzoic acid and inositol in lactation and growth of the albino rat 275

M. B. GILLIS, G. F. HEUSER AND L. C. NORRIS. The pantothenic acid requirement of hens fed a heated diet 285

J. P. LAMBOOY AND E. S. NASSETT. The inadequacy of eight synthetic B vitamins for the nutrition of puppies — Unknown factor (factors) in yeast and probably liver. One figure 293

DAVID S. ANTHONY, F. W. QUACKENBUSH, AARON IHDE, AND HARRY STEENBOCK. Anti-aerodynic potency of seed oils 303

RUTH EYLES AND HOWARD B. LEWIS. The utilization of d-glucono-δ- lactone by the organism of the young white rat 309

M. H. HAYDAK, L. S. PALMER, M. C. TANQUARY AND A. E. VIVINO. The effect of commercial clarification on the vitamin content of honey 319

H. L. CAMPBELL, C. S. PEARSON AND H. C. SHERMAN. Effect of increasing calcium content of diet upon rate of growth and length of life of unmated females 323

No. 4 OCTOBER, 1943

ELLA WOODS, W. M. BEESON AND DONALD W. BOLIN. Field peas as a source of protein for growth 327

ARTHUR D. HOLMES, CARLETON P. JONES, ANNE W. WERTZ AND JOHN W. KUZMESKI. The ratio of ascorbic acid, riboflavin and thiamine in raw and pasteurized milk 337

GEORGE M. HIGGINS, RAY D. WILLIAMS, HAROLD L. MASON AND ARTHUR J. GATZ. Some results of feeding rats a human diet low in thiamine and riboflavin. Five figures 347

HARRY A. WAISMAN AND C. A. ELVEHJEM. The role of biotin and "folic acid" in the nutrition of the rhesus monkey. Four figures 361

CHRISTENE A. HELLER, C. M. MCCAY AND C. B. LYON. Losses of vitamins in large-scale cookery 377

CHRISTENE A. HELLER, C. M. MCCAY AND C. B. LYON. Adequacy of the industrial lunch and the use of brewer's yeast as a supplement 385

BERNARD R. HOMRICH. Factors influencing the bioassay of vitamin E 391

ANCEL KEYS, AUSTIN F. HENSCHEL, OLAF MICKELSEN AND JOSEF M. BROZEK. The performance of normal young men on controlled thiamine intakes. Two figures 399

VERNON CHELDELIN AND ROBERT R. WILLIAMS. Studies of the average American diet. II. Riboflavin, nicotinic acid and pantothenic acid content .. 417

EDWARD J. THACKER. The mineral composition of the albino rat as affected by chloride deficiency 431

No. 5 NOVEMBER, 1943

JET C. WINTERS AND RUTH E. LESLIE. With the technical assistance of Margaret Anne Eppright. A study of the diet and nutritional status of women in a low-income population group 443

JOSEPH W. FERREBEE AND NORMAN WEISSMAN. Riboflavin and thiamine interrelationships in rats and in man. One figure 459

WILLIAM M. CAHILL AND GEORGE C. KOTALIK. Some observations on abrine .. 471

VERNON H. CHELDELIN, ALETHEA M. WOODS AND ROGER J. WILLIAMS. Losses of B vitamins due to cooking of foods 477

EVAN W. MCCHESNEY. Studies of calcium and phosphorus metabolism in the chick. II. Relative antirachitic effectiveness of vitamins D_2 and D_3 and dihydrostachysterol administered parenterally 487

JACK R. LEONARDS AND ALFRED H. FREE. The effect of thiamine, riboflavin or pyridoxine deficiency on the intestinal absorption of galactose in the rat 499

HELEN J. PURINTON AND CECILIA SCHUCK. With the cooperation of Mary K. Ade, A. Cole, P. H. Schmeidicke and S. J. Miller. A study of normal human requirements for ascorbic acid and certain of its metabolic relationships 509

ROBERT A. STEWART, GEORGE W. HENSLEY AND F. N. PETERS, JR. The nutritive value of protein. I. The effect of processing on oat protein 519

SOLL BERL AND W. H. PETERSON. Determination and content of carotene and vitamin A in Wisconsin butter. One figure 527

VIVIAN M. ROBERTS, MARGARET HESSLER BROOKES, LYDIA J. ROBERTS, PEGGY KOCH AND PEGGY SHELBY. The ascorbic acid requirements of school-age girls. One figure 539

No. 6 DECEMBER, 1943

WERNER BRAUN AND B. N. CARLE. The effect of diet on the vitamin A content of the bovine fetal liver 549

HERBERT M. EVANS AND GLADYS A. EMERSON. The prophylactic requirement of the rat for alpha tocopherol. Two text figures and one plate (four figures) 555

BERTHA S. BURKE, VIRGINIA A. BEAL, SAMUEL B. KIRKWOOD, AND HAROLD C. STUART. The influence of nutrition during pregnancy upon the condition of the infant at birth. Two figures 569

HARRY G. DAY, K. G. WAKIM, MERLE M. KRIDER, AND E. E. O'BANION. Effects of cecectomy, succinylsulfathiazole, and p-aminobenzoic acid on vitamin K synthesis in the intestinal tract of rats 585

R. K. BOUTWELL, R. P. GEYER, C. A. ELVEHJEM AND E. B. HART. Further studies on the comparative value of butter fat, vegetable oils, and oleomargarines 601

HERBERT P. SARETT AND WILLIAM A. PERLZWEIG. The effect of high temperature and B-vitamin levels of the diet upon the metabolism and body composition of rats 611

J. M. MCINTIRE, B. S. SCHWEIGERT AND C. A. ELVEHJEM. The retention of vitamins in veal and lamb during cooking 621

C. R. GRAU AND H. J. ALMQUIST. The utilization of the sulfur amino acids by the chick. One figure 631

JOHN T. CORRELL AND E. C. WISE. The comparative toxicity of calciferol, A. T. 10, and cod liver oil concentrate for chicks 641

L. A. MOORE, M. H. BERRY AND J. F. SYKES. Carotene requirements for the maintenance of a normal spinal fluid pressure in dairy calves 649

BARNETT SURE AND ZENAS W. FORD, JR. Influence of increasing doses of thiamine and riboflavin on efficiency of their utilization 659

HARRY J. DEUEL, JR., M. CAROLINE HRUBETZ, FRED H. MATTSON, MARGARET G. MOREHOUSE AND ALAN RICHARDSON, with the technical assistance of JEANETTE GOW. Studies on carotenoid metabolism. IV. The effect of vitamin A intake on the carotenoid and vitamin A content of the eggs, liver, blood and body fat of hens. Two figures 673
